Concerned about the future of square dancing in the NNJSDA area?
Volunteer to join the Board and help keep us a vibrant organization.

From the computer of... Rusty & Richard Ball, NNJSDA Presidents

Several of us from the NNJSDA joined the standing-room-only crowd at a presentation on the recruitment of square dancers given by two callers, Nasser Shukayr and Jerry Story, at the National Convention in Charlotte. They had some fascinating things to point out – things we just accept in square dancing.

The first concept is that square dancing is a PRODUCT, and we are not using our best approach to sell our product. Keep in mind that Nasser and Jerry are among a large group of square dance professionals who make their living doing what we do for a pastime, and who are promoting a more up-to-date way of approaching our “marketing.”

There are statistics available (based on CALLERLAB research) that say if you ask 100 people if they would try a square dance, 56% would say ‘Yes’ or ‘Maybe.’ Ask those same 100 people if they would be willing to take 10 weeks of lessons to learn how to square dance and that number slims down to 0%. None. Not one person would say yes, on average. Besides that, if they miss a lesson, we tell them they may have to start over – and then after the first 10 weeks of lessons, we sort of slip in the fact that another 10 weeks will be necessary to really be a dancer and start enjoying themselves – when they thought they were just going to come and have fun dancing!

The flip side of the coin, however, is that if you ask 100 people who have already attended and enjoyed square dancing if they are willing to take 10 weeks of lessons to learn the Mainstream program, the number goes up to closer to 30%. In other words, if you can get them someplace where they can dance immediately and turn them into DANCERS, you stand a much, much higher chance of turning them into square dancers.

Nasser says, “Square dancing is a well kept secret from new customers. Beginner classes usually start only once a year. By the third or fourth week of class, it’s too late to accept new people. Most of the year, we offer no product to the public.

“What if we sold square dancing instead of square dance lessons? What if new people could start any time they choose, instead of waiting for the next class to begin? No experience required, take three different beginner dances in any order, new people and their friends can join at any time. You’re selling dancing instead of caller school in 1979 on a scholarship provided by Y Squares and honed his skills by working with Betsy Gotta. He also tried contra dancing, where he met Kathy in 1987.

Kathy then caught the square dance bug from Dan and took lessons at Rutgers Promenaders, while Dan taught at Y Squares. They married in 1989, and Dan continued calling and teaching. Realizing that if she wanted to spend time with Dan she would be well served by becoming a round dance cuer, Kathy learned the craft from Roy Gotta.

Now the two could work at dances together, with Dan calling and Kathy cuing and sometimes both of them harmonizing on singing calls. Bernie and Betty often attended the dances where Dan and Kathy were working. The four of them had a great time together, and they figured “the more the merrier.” Baby Julie joined the family in 1995, and her proud parents took her to dances with them.

When he’s not calling, Dan works as a consulting user services support specialist in the computing area at Rutgers, where he is also pursuing a master’s degree in Business Administration. When she’s not cuing, Kathy can be found at L’Oreal Paris Consumer Products, where she serves as a senior forecast analyst and assistant manager of forecasting systems.

Julie is busy with school activities such as singing in the chorus, playing viola in the orchestra, and performing in musicals.

Naturally, Julie learned to dance at a tender age. It should be no surprise that she, too, sometimes takes the microphone for duets with her dad. We can predict what will happen in a decade or so ...

The family that dances together... dances together! And in the case of the Kofts, they also call and cue together.

Dan Koft started dancing with the Pi R Squares at East Brunswick High School under the direction of caller/instructor Dick Jones, completing his lessons in 1977. He joined Rutgers Promenaders during college and held several leadership roles with the club. Dan’s enthusiasm was so contagious that his parents, Bernie and Betty, caught the dance bug. They graduated from the Merri-Eights class in 1979.

In the meantime, square dancing wasn’t enough for Dan. He attended

Caller Pal Johnson Retires

At Lakeland Square's October 30 barn dance, caller Pal Johnson officially announced his retirement at the end of 2007.

Pal was introduced to square dancing in the mid 1970s when his first wife (since deceased) coaxed him into going to a free open house dance. Dave Laws, a founder of Lakeland Squares, was the caller. Pal had such a good time that he took lessons and graduated to become a member of Lakeland Squares. At that time, Dick Jones, Mike Foley, and Bob Mitchell were the club callers. Pal became friends with them, and they encouraged him to try calling. Pal became a charter member of Lakeland when the club incorporated around 1977.

His first calling job was in 1980 as instructor for Lakeland's class, and he continued teaching for the club for 25 more years, during which time he graduated over 300 dancers.

In 1990, Barbara Sherry, who had lost her husband two years earlier, decided to retake dancing lessons and joined his class. After graduation, she and Pal began dating and were married a year later. November 28, 2007 was their 15th anniversary.

Pal has called for many local clubs as well as hundreds of "one nighters" and demonstrations, including dances for disabled dancers (blind, in wheelchairs, etc.). He has also taught square dancing in several high schools as part of their regular gym classes. Several times each year he has called for various Girl Scout and Brownie troops for "Father/Daughter" nights. These dances usually drew between 150 and 300 dancers.

Although he will no longer be calling, he and Barbara have every intention of dancing "as long as our legs hold out."

In Memoriam

Bill Anderson, Caller

Bill Anderson passed away on August 19, 2007, at the age of 75. Born in Kentucky, he moved to Staten Island after serving in the Air Force during the Korean conflict. Bill and his wife, Donna, were active square dancers before he became a caller. He used his magnificent tenor voice as a recording artist with Red Boot Records and as a member of New York City's Opera Workshop. The Andersons chaired New Jersey's first State Square Dance Convention in 1987. They also assisted Doc and Peg Tirrell, the founding editors of our Grand Square, with production of the publication. Recently, NJ/NY dancers saw Bill and Donna at the National Square Dance Convention in Texas when the Andersons attended the event in their mechanized wheelchairs from their retirement home in Sutherland Springs, Texas.

For over 20 years, Bill volunteered weekly at Goldwater Rehabilitation Hospital on Roosevelt Island in Manhattan teaching wheelchair square dancing. He was honored on an Al Roker NBC-TV feature segment for his years of devoted service. At St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Englewood, Bill was known as "The Cookie Man" (for creating a different flavor cookie every week for the coffee hour after Sunday services) and "The Brass Man" (for polishing all of the brass in the church in one year).

For decades, Twyla Tharp has been one of the most distinctive choreographers in American dance, but with the revolutionary Movin' Out, she took Broadway by storm. Tharp's Tony-winning work as director and choreographer of this non-stop, all-dance musical – which tells a moving story of two turbulent decades in the lives of five lifelong friends – is set to 24 unforgettable songs by Billy Joel, all performed live by an onstage band. “Movin' Out sizzles with energy, vitality and class,” says Variety.

In Memoriam

Just about anyone who attended an NNJSDA dance in the past decade would remember Al Ruh – the big guy with a big smile and an even bigger heart; the man with twinkling eyes; the person who was always ready with a story and a laugh. Cancer claimed Al's life on July 13, 2007, leaving a hole in the heart of the NNJSDA.

Al Ruh

Al was born in Brooklyn, NY but spent much of his life in Blairstown, NJ. He worked many years for IBM before opening the Sunset Christmas Tree Farm in Blairstown, and he also served as Warren County Surrogate.

During the Viet Nam war, Al was an Army major. His active duty included three years in Viet Nam and Thailand. Afterward, Al remained in the National Guard for 20 years and was a member of both the VFW and American Legion.

An avid model railroader, Al laid tracks in his back yard and outfitted them with two full-size cabooses, one of which held model railroad layouts that he designed and crafted himself. "Al did pristine work, and every detail had to be absolutely perfect," recalled his partner, Kay Davis. She has fond memories of accompanying him as he searched for "treasures" around old railroad tracks using a metal detector. Al volunteered with the Cumbres and Toltec Scenic Railroad by restoring railroad cars and transporting tourists from Chama, NM to Antonito, CO and back.

In 1993, Al began a new hobby: square dancing. He took lessons from the Kittatinny Rangers, where Kay served as class coordinator. "It was my job to encourage the class to attend student dances at Kittatinny, other clubs, and the NNJSDA. When I asked if he wanted to go, he always answered, 'If you're going, I'll go.' Dancing evolved into dating."

Kay and Al shared a love for travel, and many of their destinations were National Square Dance Conventions. Along with three other couples, they arrived early or stayed after the convention to sightsee.

Al held the offices of president, vice president/class coordinator, and treasurer of Kittatinny Rangers. He was also treasurer and assistant treasurer of the NNJSDA. "Even when he was no longer able to dance, he attended every meeting and dance, helping out as much as he could," Kay remembered.

Al leaves two sons. "Thomas lives in Georgia and shares his interest in model railroading," said Kay. "Timothy from Arkansas was here last spring to learn the Christmas tree business, and he is interested in continuing his father's farm."

Mike Szekula and Donna Poyer of Kittatinny Rangers expressed the sentiments of Al's dancing family: "He was an enormous asset to our club and the Board, and will be greatly missed by his family and many friends."

The Grand Square article on Ken and Helena Robinson was truly heartwarming and a testament to square dancing. We wish Ken good memories and no more sorrow.

Our September open house was well attended. We did not get many new students this season; however, we look forward to a good year of dancing and upgrading many of our members to Plus and A1. Our season continued with a beautiful Halloween workshop with costumes, masks, and other accessories. We were well represented at the Hudson Valley subscription dance (a New York State function). As always, we sent a large contingent of dancers to the Mini-Festival.

December opened with a three-day weekend event in the Catskills sponsored by the Coys and the Hardys. Some amazing secrets were shared at one of the after parties. And I thought we had a sedate club! The evening ended with AleMo's musicians – Joe Milazzo, Burt Gallo, and Joe Spidaro – joined by Gerry Hardy, Don Coy, and Mark Green, filling the hall with some great music.

Chuck Conklin

Chuck Conklin moved in with his daughter's family in Texas last year while preparing to get back on his feet – literally. In the meanwhile, he was dancing in his dreams.

"One time after I dozed off, I heard someone say, 'All people who need a foot, come and get one.' So I went up and got a foot, and then started dancing. It went great until I woke up. It feels so good to dance, even if it's in my dreams!" During Chuck's extensive physical therapy, he told the therapists: "Come on and get me better so I can dance."

After being fitted with a prosthetic foot, he used a walker and then progressed to a cane. In October, a pressure point developed on his leg from a new boot, and he had to postpone wearing the new foot. In November, Chuck danced in a wheelchair with his great-granddaughter at her 16th birthday party.

In December, he required gall bladder surgery, which seemed to be successful. Chuck joked with the hospital staff and always talked about square dancing. But there were complications, and he became unresponsive on Christmas night. Chuck passed away on December 28, 2007.

Chuck was a member of four New Jersey clubs: Kittatinny Rangers, Lakeland Squares, Mountain Squares, and Spinning Wheels. "He really missed all the New Jersey square dancers," said his daughter, Candylou Douget. The family can be reached at 960 Millie Street, Vidor, TX 77662 or by e-mail to his granddaughter, Tammy Whitley, at tamsat98@swbell.net.

After our three September Open House dances, we started a beginner's class with 10 new dancers and an intermediate class with 16 dancers returning from last year. Both classes meet on Monday nights at the Adamsville School and are led by instructor Gardner Patton. Bohdan and Anne Stryzak are (again) doing a great job as class coordinators. The beginner's class will finish Mainstream in June. The intermediate class finishes Mainstream this month, to be followed by a Plus class starting Monday, January 28 and finishing the Plus program in June. This class is open to any dancer who already knows Mainstream and wants to learn Plus.

Irma Huhn is organizing raids so we can complete our raid program this year. Our first raid was to Harmony Dancers in November. We thank Mountain Squares and Lakeland Squares for raiding us.

Advanced dancers should be sure to set aside Friday, February 8 for our Sweethearts' Ball (Happy Valentine's Day) called by Steve Jacques from Virginia. This dance will have alternating Advanced (A2) and Plus tips with round dances cued by Steve Bradt.

As always, the Five Clubs have scheduled some great callers and cuers for their 2008 summer dances. Be sure to check out their ad in this issue to make your square dance plans for the summer.

PLEASE NOTE: Starting February 22 we will have alternating Mainstream and Plus tips to encourage new dancers to attend.

New Jersey Cultural Celebration: Changing Perceptions / Being Visible

In September 2007, square dancing was once again on public display. After being featured at a press conference promoting the event, our activity was part of the New Jersey Cultural Celebration in Trenton on September 29.

Our participation was ably organized in two weeks, starting with Lise Greene, Vice President for Publicity of the NNJSDA, successfully petitioning the Governor's office to have September declared Square Dance Month in New Jersey. This proclamation brought the official Folk Dance of New Jersey (since 1983) to the attention of Secretary of State Nina Wells. Realizing that square dancing would be a perfect addition to the festival, her office contacted Lise, who in turn contacted Roy and Betsy Gotta. Within one week, one square was assembled for the press conference and two squares for the Cultural Celebration.

The press conference was held at the Mott School in Trenton's South Ward. After speeches by the Secretary of State and the Mayor of Trenton, our square dancers put on a demo. Continuing the theme of celebrating New Jersey's rich cultural diversity, Betsy did the singing call "Put A Little Love in Your Heart." Many thanks to the dancers who drove to Trenton for a 3½ minute demo.

The Cultural Celebration was blessed with perfect weather. The energetic and smiling square dancers spanned the age ranges, and the demo went quite well. Throughout the performance, Betsy explained what square dance was all about and how people could get information about dancing in their area. To dispel the myth that we only use country music, Betsy chose three very different pieces: the country tune "Walking after Midnight," the contemporary tune "Funky Town," and the Broadway children's tune "Hakuna Matada." We need to take advantage of opportunities such as this to put our activity in the public eye. Elected officials and hundreds of festival attendees now know we're here.

In addition to square dancing, the Cultural Celebration showcased other forms of dance, music, and food, as well as held a swearing-in ceremony for new U.S. citizens.

This year's Mystery Bus Raid had everyone's head spinning, and it wasn't just Connecticut's October foliage that did it. Rusty and Richard Ball have led us on some pretty circuitous routes in past years, but this time they literally had us going in circles. The itinerary included not one, not two, but THREE stops that featured merry-go-rounds en route to a raid on the Glastonbury Square Dance Club. The first stop was the Danbury Fair Mall, where club members got to ride on the mall's spectacular two-story carousel. Then it was on to Bristol for a visit to the New England Carousel Museum. The final stop was Hartford's Bushnell Park, where we rode the carousel there. Finally, we proceeded to Glastonbury for dinner and dancing until the late evening hours.

Back at home in Glen Rock, Fran Wadel has another great class off and running. Enrollment is 16 and growing. It's always a joy to bring new dancers into the fold.

We've got lots of great dances planned for the coming months. You're always welcome to join us!

lessons. Experienced and inexperienced are all welcome! You always have an available product. Now that's a HUGE advantage!" What he's referring to is something called the ABC Program. It's a simple concept to introduce people to the joy of square dancing without asking for the commitment required to learn the full Mainstream program. In other words, get them hooked first and then throw in the concept of lessons! People who have never been in a square can show up at an advertised dance, learn a few calls, and have a great time. It is intended to make square dancing as easy as ABC. Doors are always open to new people, not just once a year. Consider it a series of one-nighters designed so attendees can dance every tip every evening. (Visit SquareDanceABC.com for more specifics on the ABC Program.)

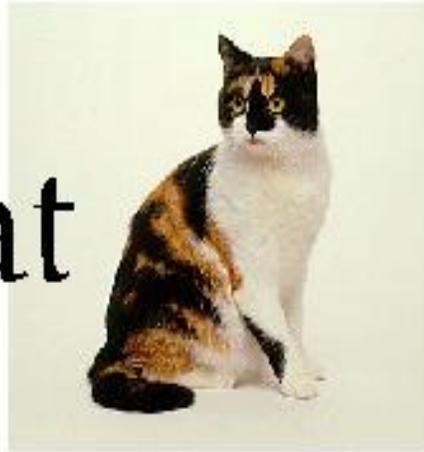

Sounds like pie in the sky, or a clash with what we know as the Modern Western Square Dance Club? Never. Groups all around the country are putting it into action, feeding new blood into square dancing, and having a heck of a good time just having FUN. Stay tuned for how the NNJSDA and the CCNJ plan to get involved in this exciting marketing concept.

Hello, everyone! I am the new reporter for Circle Eights. Our club gratefully acknowledges the six-year dedicated service of our former reporter, Lynn Michel.

Having square danced as a teenager in Staten Island, NY, I am excited to have graduated last spring and become a full-fledged member of Circle Eights. The club is so welcoming and fun-loving. During the summer, I was delighted to square dance with Circle Eights in the Oradell Fourth of July Parade. The onlookers seemed to really enjoy our lively costumes and performance.

At our first dance of the new season, Rusty and Richard Ball, Presidents of the NNJSDA, surprised our club with an award for having the second highest number of attendees at "The Gathering." Fourteen of our members enjoyed the day and brought back their ideas to our club. We are truly grateful for that special recognition. Our recent Halloween "Monster Mash" was a 'spook'tacular event with Jim Snyder calling. Some of the festive costumes worn by the revelers were a cook, a graduate, a superhero, and a nun. A large penguin also waddled through the dances. This fall, our club successfully raided Lakeland Squares, Tenakill Twirlers, and Belles & Beaux. The number of members attending those raids was 11, 22, and 26 respectively. The Circle Eights/Western Wheelers New Year's Eve hot buffet/square dance and our annual club luncheon were both well attended, fun-filled events.

Cross Trail Squares kicked off an exciting fall season with the graduation of nine new Mainstream dancers! The class, which started in January, worked through the summer under the guidance of our caller/instructor Ron Kapnick to prepare for a September graduation. Our graduation dance was called by Howard Richman, who provided the new dancers with a fun-filled evening. They are an enthusiastic group, and we are delighted to have them join our ranks. Thanks to the many angels who have been a part of this recent group. We couldn't have done it without you! The new dancers have already been seen at a number of dances and have even participated in several raids. Our current class consists of seven new dancers including three fun-loving kids! Speaking of raids, we already have six raids under our belts for the 2007-2008 season. One raid consisted of 20 dancers strong traveling to AleMo Squares in Brooklyn, NY.

During the summer months, club members attended dances from New England to Southern California. From coast to coast, they found that square dancing is truly "Friendship set to music." Our first four dances of the new fall season were fun, well-attended events.

Last edition, I talked about the seminar for new callers that CCNJ planned to sponsor. Five of the six sessions were attended by several new callers, and we expect the last session to be well attended also. John Kaltenthaler, ably assisted by Mike Jacobs and Betsy Gotta (for the last session), has initiated the budding callers into the mysteries of “Chicken Plucker,” modules, zeros, resolving the square, and many other calling secrets. All of the caller coaches mentioned above are Callerlab Accredited Caller Coaches, which means they have passed a rigorous set of tests to demonstrate that they have the knowledge to help teach other callers. We are exceedingly lucky to have these people active in our callers’ association. The series has been successful enough that a follow-up series is planned during this spring.

Start looking for new faces behind the microphone and be encouraging. Experienced callers make calling look easier than it is. We need these new callers. All dancers are welcome at CCNJ meetings, which are held the 2nd Saturdays of March, June, September, and December. We start the education sessions at 9:30 am. Contact Ron Kapnick at 973-857-8879 or check the CCNJ website for directions (www.ccnjcallers.com).

There has been a change in our summer plans. We had hoped to be dancing on a super wood floor at the nearby American Legion Hall this coming summer. Everyone was happy to get back to square dancing on Friday nights. We did keep in touch over the summer with our club picnic at the Baileys'.

As in previous years, we sponsored a Barn Dance/Open House on September 16 in conjunction with the Hunterdon County Park System. It was very well attended, but we did not get the commitment we needed to start a September class. However, we are hosting an Open House on February 10 with the hope of starting a class on February 17. This timeframe has worked well before.

We participated in Hunterdon County Library's Festival Friday this fall by putting on a demo with Michelle McCarty calling. We are happy to say that the participation by those in attendance was almost 100%. Also, our club was represented at the NNJSDA Mini-Fest this year by dedicated members Sara and Monty Burton, Pat and Don Elliott, Donna Besignano and Joe Kwiatek, and Audrey Rounsaville.

Please join us on the 1st & 3rd Fridays at Echo Hill Park for good dancing and good fellowship. The floor is spectacular! See you there...

Kittatinny Rangers have launched their fall class season, thanks to the smooth coordination Donna and Ron Kornmiller are providing.

We're delighted to continue with our cherished Wayne Applegate, who's challenging us to move up the ladder into Plus lessons. So far no one has fallen into an abyss with the challenge.

Our super schmoozing Francine and Bob Leshnowar celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary with us before heading off to Yellowstone to commemorate their milestone together. We clinked champagne glasses to toast this special occasion.

With Jim and Peg Behan chairing a sumptuous buffet, we celebrated Herb Stanske's 75th birthday with two extravagant cakes. This special occasion was enlivened by some very capable dancers raiding from Lakeland Squares and more support from some of our Reelers favorites.

We're hoping to enjoy some more upbeat raids from some of the rest of you boogiers during this season. We're really easy to find at the Florence Burd School (usually) on Newton-Sparta Road.

Our Halloween barn dance on October 30 was an extra special evening: Caller Pal Johnson officially announced that he was “hanging up his microphone” at the end of the year. His family, former students, and many friends were on hand for the occasion. We welcomed many visitors, including some members we had not seen for many months. A big double chocolate cake proclaimed “Thank you, Pal.” We will miss him. You may read about his calling career in an article in this issue.

Our barn dances typically draw larger attendance than our regular dances. Some people apparently enjoy dancing the simple moves without wanting to go further. Barn dances are Lakeland’s service to the community. Pal Johnson is an expert at turning first-timers into dancers.

We hope they will enjoy dancing with our club and visiting other clubs. Our veteran and new dancers are happy to welcome visitors to our club.

Happy New Year! We hope that 2008 will bring you hours and hours of square dancing merriment.

On October 12, 26 Ramblers raided Y Squares and had a wonderful time. Our hosts made us feel right at home, and caller Wayne Applegate kept us on our toes all night. This raid will be a memorable occasion for me for two reasons: It was my first raid, and it was the first time I saw several Ramblers sporting our redesigned name badge.

Our class instructor, Larry Sherwood, felt that after 37 years, it was time to modernize our badge. Knowing that I had taken some computer graphics courses, he asked me to apply my design skills to the task. In May 2006, I presented a few sketches to the Board. However, it was not until August 2007 that the design was finalized: a red rose hovering over a dancing guy and girl on the left side of the badge; the dancer's name along with club name on the right; a green squiggly line (that represents the dance floor) connecting both sides of the badge.

Fortunately, Larry had connected with Bruce and Wanda Carter from "Tag-Em!" Engraving at the National Convention in Charlotte, North Carolina. Bruce was very helpful, knowledgeable, patient, and thorough, and he turned out the product in a timely manner for a reasonable fee. If you're in the market for a new badge, you definitely want to check him out. Bruce can be reached at 512-894-3634, and his email address is wcdrip@juno.com.

Our Halloween dance was a real blast, with many dancers coming out with wild, innovative costumes. The winners of our annual Halloween costume votes were Most Original: Jim Henry (as Day) and Joyce (as Night); Best Couple: Mike Hale (as Pooh) and Bonny Gundacker (as Honey Bucket); and Prettiest: Agnes Brunner (as the Statue of Liberty). The vocal chords of Mark Franks added to the ghoulish festivities.

We Ramblers really love receiving guests, and since we meet just about every Friday throughout the year, there's ample opportunity for you to come and join the fun. We're just off Route 36, about 10 miles south of Exit 117 on the Garden State Parkway. We're particularly excited about having national caller Mike Jacobs at our Sadie Hawkins dance on February 29. Ramble on!

MOTIV8ORS – Elmwood Park

VFW Hall, 6 Veterans Pl., 07407

Chariss Smith & Carl Luhrs: 201-489-2498

Welcome to our new treasurers, Sue and Rich Baumeister. Thanks to Micky Siegel, our outgoing treasurer, for a job well done. The treasurer's table at our dances is being ably staffed by our rotating cashiers. In a gesture of hands (and dancing feet) across the border, Motiv8ors recently joined the Hudson Valley Council.

With 6½ couples, we raided Mountain Squares on September 19. It's always a pleasure to raid this friendly club, and Joe Landi is such a fun caller. Our raiders did a spiffy rendition of our raid parade. Also in September, Fred Meyer made an appeal on behalf of the Alzheimer's Association and Fred's wife, Marian, a former president of Motiv8ors and currently an Alzheimer's patient. The response from the dancers was heart-warming with the knowledge that the funds would be used to help struggling caregivers and for research.

On October 7, we welcomed back Barbara and Stan Jacobs after a year-long absence from our club due to health concerns. Thanks to Peggy Koehler for the delicious chocolate cake she baked for our October 21 dance. Its frosting was imaginatively decorated with candy corn fields, jelly bean green beans, a candy watermelon patch, stick pretzel fences, and marshmallow ghosts.

November saw Motiv8ors nicely represented at the Mini-Festival, after which we enjoyed Mountain Squares raiding us with 1½ squares. We continued to have fun dancing through the holiday season and into the new year.

We extend a warm welcome to Jessica Wu, our latest new member. Congratulations to Jan and Louis Thompson upon their 25th anniversary; they have been square dancing for 20 and round dancing for 15 of those years. Congratulations to Joyce and Paul Huebsch upon the birth of their sixth grandchild. Former members, the Huebschs have started attending our dances more regularly again.

We offer dancing, both fun and interesting, for Advanced and Challenge dancers with varying levels of experience. Teamwork makes even challenging choreography fun. We generally have four to five squares in attendance. Our skilled callers mix motivating choreography with helpful hints as needed to keep our dancers dancing with a smile on their face and a bounce in their step. Thank you, Keith Stevens, Ken Ritucci, Todd Felleggy, Rob French, Ed Foote, and Mike Jacobs.

Some of our members are world travelers. Paula and Roy Lawrence took their grandchildren to the Galapagos Islands in June to celebrate their granddaughter's graduation from college. Everyone had a great time. In September, Jan and Paul Sanderson and LouEllen and George Stoms joined 100 square dancers from all over the country on a trip to Bavaria. It was organized by several callers from Arizona and California. They all had a good time and came home commenting that German dancers are "very exuberant in their dancing, and good too!"

On September 28, Bill Groth was informed he had been nominated by the NJ Department of Health and Senior Services and the Office of Emergency Medical Services for the EMS Volunteer Lifetime Achievement award for 2007. Congratulations, Bill!

The Reelers started the square dance year with a "Friendship Dance." Members brought a friend, free of charge, to show them the fun we have square dancing. Fortunately, some of these people decided to join our Mainstream class taught by Fran Wadel. Fran is doing a great job, and the students are progressing nicely. They look forward to completing Mainstream so they can start our Plus lessons in February. The angels that come out to help the class every Tuesday night are greatly appreciated.

Congratulations to Lise Greene for winning the Grand Square NNJSDA Poster Contest. Nice job, Lise! You and Mark are also doing a great job as Raid Chairs.

The Reelers are keeping their promise to raid all the clubs that raided us last year. Come, bring your club members to our dance, and we will return the visit. It makes our dances so much more fun to visit with our fellow square dancers. This year at our November 16 dance, everyone wore "bling or funky jewelry." We were all movie stars for a night. On January 4, we celebrated everyone's birthday. It didn't matter when your real birthday was; we celebrated them all together.

The Reelers had a good time at the Mini-Festival. A large group of Reelers and their friends went out to eat together. It is a good thing we keep on dancing because Reelers really seem to enjoy the fellowship and the FOOD.

As I write this, our 2007-08 Mainstream class is progressing nicely. At least 12 students have been attending regularly and are quite enthusiastic about square dancing. I expect that by the time you read this, they will be attending their first student dances. Roxanne Memmolo and Pat Salvesen, 2007 RR graduates, are doing a great job as class coordinators. Other 2007 grads helping out as angels include Rose & Ray, Sue & Ken, Marie, Sherry, Susan, and Cathy & Don. At the risk of leaving someone out, I would like to thank our club's loyal experienced angels: Patsy, Joe, Sue & Rich, Dotty & Mal, Rita & Ray, Mindy, Loretta, Clare, Teddy, and Tony. Loyal non-members who also angel regularly are Bob and Mary & John. Special thanks to our wonderful teacher, Fran Wadel.

Other members playing key roles for RR this year are our devoted Chairmen Mal & Dotty, diligent Presidents Barry & Laurie, Caller VPs Beverly & Marty, Facilities VP Joe, Refreshment VPs Ray & Rita, Dave & Miriam and Fred & Marion, Treasurers Sue & Rich, Assistant Treasurers Don & Cathy, and Raid Chair Patsy. Our Delegates are Greta to the Hudson Valley Council and Dave & Miriam to the NNJSDA. Also supporting our club as regular dance attendees and emissaries to other clubs are Betty, Fred & Lauren, Lucille & Richard, Maria & Roger, and Irv & Gloria. Providing Sunshine and Hospitality are Clare, Loretta, Lori, and Ken & Sue.

We wish speedy healing to Gloria Kushner as she recuperates from arthroscopic surgery. I trust that by the time this appears in print, Gloria will be back do-sa-do-ing with the rest of us. Congratulations to Mindy Scher and Betty Schultz on the recent arrival of new baby granddaughters. All our friendly members look forward to squaring up with you at RocklandRockytops.

Our new dance season is off to a positive start. We are currently holding an introductory/refresher dance session prior to our normal dancing time. This is an ideal opportunity for those who are new to Mainstream dancing to re-hone their newly acquired skills, as well as for those who may have been away from the activity for a while to "return to the fold."

In late September, Betsy Gotta led a demo of two squares at the NJ Cultural Celebration in Trenton. Your humble new reporter, who was in attendance, can attest to a very good and enthusiastic turnout with idyllic weather conditions for the day. We were raided by Belles & Beaux at our last dance in October. During November, we held (as we have for the past few years) a food collection drive to benefit a local food bank for those less fortunate than ourselves.

Spinning Wheels continues to have fun dances with great callers every Monday evening. Two of our September dances happened to be held on the hottest nights of fall, but in true square dance fashion, we danced, ate, perspired, and enjoyed the evening.

Later this year, we will be celebrating our 30th anniversary, and we are planning a wonderful celebration. There will be more information in our next report. Until then, come out and have a great time with us every Monday from September through June.

TENAKILL TWIRLERS – Cresskill

3 Fri. Oct-May

Bryan School, 51 Brookside Ave., 07626

Gloria Fodera: 201-385-8869

Tenakill Twirlers began its 57th season of square dancing in October with one of our favorite callers, Howard Richman. Many thanks to Circle Eights for raiding our opening dance, bringing the attendance to five squares. Our November dance featured the entertaining calling duo, Chuck and Gerry Hardy.

Happy Squares began their new season under the leadership of Mary Aquino. Happy Squares is the club that brings smiles to the faces of residents of nursing homes and similar facilities. Mary has taken over the reins from Fanny and George Meyer, who led the group for fifteen years. Fanny and George continue to dance with Happy Squares as well as continue to serve as Vice Presidents of Tenakill Twirlers. They also are eagerly anticipating the arrival of their first great-grandchild.

Come down to Brookside Avenue, our dance location for over 50 years, and you will be warmly welcomed by our membership, including Joan and Dick Marcell (treasurers), Fanny and George Meyer, Bee and Gerry Heidelberg (delegates), Myra and Miles Adler (raid chairs), and of course, Gloria Fodera (president).

From invitation to performance, the Secretary of State's office – the event organizers – were very helpful and pleasant. We appreciate their partnership.

Finally, a special thanks to the dancers who participated in the press conference and/or demo: John, Mary Ann, and Theresa Erdek (Rutgers Promenaders); Bob and Francine Leshnowar, Kay Davis, and Ruth Seaman (Kittatinny Rangers); Don and Dianne Madden (Y Squares); Rich Delgado (Masqueraders); Mike Jacobs (CCNJ); Will Hamp (Independence Squares); Michelle and Brittany McCarty (Hunterdon Stars); Joe Kwiatek, Donna Besignano, Bryan and Sylvia Fountain, and Audrey Rounsaville (Hunterdon Flutterwheels); and Alan Willemsen (Times Squares).

Where does the time go? Our first dance of the fall season on October 13 featured a real fun caller, Jim Snyder. On October 27, five squares enjoyed themselves dancing to Ken Ritucci's calling. The club had a short meeting before the dance, and our volunteers and plans are in place for the season. We welcome Hilda Bachmann as our new refreshment coordinator and Pat Korzelius and Audrey Kerner as her committee. Roger Hoernlein introduced our six new members and presented them with club badges. Welcome, and happy dancing! We are confident that Bob Bachmann, our NNJSDA delegate, will keep us well informed.

We completed our raid program for this past season. We have a very efficient coordinator, Georgi Flandera. She "gets the job done." At our November 10 dance, we were raided by the GSSDC club (those campers), with Len Anfinsen calling. We always enjoy this "wearing-of-the-green" group.

The Hoernleins had a unique family reunion this past July: They all met in the Adirondack Mountains and stayed in cabins. Neat idea? The Flanderas made a trip to Italy. Maybe they can demonstrate Italian square dancing some time. Oh, what fun we do have!

We look forward to our New Year's Eve dance this year, co-sponsored by Circle Eights and featuring the Hardys. Come join us, you'll like us: The Friendly Club!

Our new class is off to a great start. Our seven students are progressing nicely and having lots of fun. Some of our graduates have returned to review the class. A great big "Thank you!" to all our angels who come out and help every week.

In October, Middletown Ramblers raided our club with 3½ squares. It was wonderful to have all those guests. Thank you, Middletown!
