

AleMo Squares

I was not going to write an article for this issue of Grand Square, because I felt we did not have anything significant to share. But after speaking with the editor, I realized that there is something important to say.

After 40 years of dancing, we are hoping that AleMo will still be around next year. This is the first time that we do not have a graduating class.

Our membership has been getting smaller and smaller over the years. Many of our members have moved away, and others are not able to dance due to health reasons. When I joined square dancing in 2001, AleMo was a large club – at least eight squares on a Wednesday night! Now we are thankful to have two squares. We are a closer-knit club and we have fun, but what will be in September is unknown just now. We hope to be dancing as long as we can.

A few of our members attended the Mini-Festival and had a good time. On May 22, our members will have a chance to show off their cooking skills at our potluck dinner-dance. Everyone wants to be the next “Lidia”!
